Memorandum of the Democratic State Executive Committee.

Resolved, That this committee do hereby rescind its action at Philadelphia on the 2d of July, and at Gettysburg on the 9th of August last, and that we recommend to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to stand by the Electoral ticket made by the Democratic State Convention at Reading on the 1st of March, 1860.

Are You Assessed?

A number of persons lost their votes at the State Election because they had not been Assessed in time. See to it that you do not lose your vote for the regular Democratic (Reading) Electoral Ticket, on the 6th of November, for the same reason; you have no time to lose.

Democrats of Adams County.

You have done your duty nobly. Against the most desperate odds, in spite of all the bribery and corruption, the trickery and chicanery, of your unscrupulous foes, you have saved Adams county once more from falling into the hands of the Abolitionists. Though the result of the election is not in every respect as we hoped it might be, yet you have much to rejoice over. While other counties proved recreant, you have stood firm. When other districts darken beneath the cloud of the "irrepressible conflict," yours remains a green spot in the desert of abolitionised Pennsylvania. Shall we not go to work, then, and increase our majority at the coming election? We can do it. Our full vote was not polled at the recent election, and if brought out we can at least double Foster's majority. Let no Democrat be disengaged. We have future battles to fight. We have the Democratic organization to preserve. Rally, then, Rally, once more, fellow Democrats! Rally like lions and frenzies, and give the enemy one more broadside in glorious little Adams, on the 6th of November next!

—We say to every Democrat whom our voice can reach, let no apprehension of defeat deter you from coming out at the Presidential election and voting the Reading Electoral Ticket. Your vote is more important now, when the chances appear to us against our carrying the State, than if we had an easy victory before us. If our success was certain we might spare your vote, but under the circumstances that surround us we need it and must have it.

—To our friends in the country, who, under the depressing influence of our late defeat in the State, may feel inclined to stay at home on election day, we would make an earnest appeal to give one more day to their country. We may be victorious after all. All is not lost that's in danger! Rally once more!

—Expected Results of Black Republican Success.—A negro insurrection, perhaps more or less, very likely to follow the knowledge of a Republic's triumph!—27th of October.

—Pause, voter, and reflect. Can you, with patriotic blood in your veins, vote with a party whose triumph would precipitate insurrection—dissolution—ruin? The ship of state is being driven by Northern fanatics towards an awful brink—will you, by your vote, assist to dash her over and bring all the horrors of shipwreck upon our beloved country? Voter, PAUSE!

—The Wide Awakes!—All honor to these glorious bands of young men!—Star.

—That's just the way the Star puffed the Know Nothing in their day of glory. The order, however, became odious to a majority of the people, and the Star ceased its praises—some of the managers even going so far as to denounce the midnight concern! It will be with their Wide Awake movement. It will soon go down, too—and then the Star will give it as many kicks as if now given it. Mark the prediction.

—Since the recent elections the South is becoming more reconciled!—Star.

—Could a falsehood more deliberate be perpetrated. With its city exchanges teeming every day with articles announcing the terrible anxiety at the South because of the progress of Northern fanatics, the Star has the effrontery to make the above declaration. Are the Republicans already becoming alarmed at the results of their work?

—$72,000.

A prominent citizen of Philadelphia recently saw the sum of $73,000 counted down to the Chairman of the Black Republican State Committee for this State, to be used to effect the election of Andrew G. Curtin. This amounts to the defeat of Henry D. Foster—Bedford Gazette.

Pennsylvania Democrats!

Let it not be said that you are conquered. Rouse yourselves for another struggle with the enemy! Vote! Vote!

—The Harrisburg Patriot & Union says that the Wide Awakes club there is likely to be converted into a military company. What say you to it? In many wonder that the South is beginning alarmed while the Northern States are not only organized Opprage, Friends of the Union!

The York Gazette, of Tuesday, says—it is true the friends of the Union were defeated on Tuesday last, and that the proud banner of Democracy was struck down in Pennsylvania. But Lincoln is not yet elected. Pennsylvania has not yet endorsed his election. It does not follow that because Curtin is elected that the Keystone of the Federal arch will, with absolute certainty, give her vote to a man whose election will in all probability number the days of the Republic. She has THREE WEEKS for deliberation. Can it be possible, that, occupying a central, conservative position, she will deliberately array herself on the Presidential question, with the fanatical, nullifying states of Vermont and Massachusetts? Will she forget all the teachings of the Fathers of the Republic? Will she disregard the councils of the greatest statesmen of the past and present against the danger of sectional parties, and give her vote to the candidates of a party which exists only in the Free States, and has grown up and now lives on sectional prejudice and ex-citement, which has nominated its candidates for President and Vice President, both from the Free States, which bissed the Southern States in their Convention at Chicago when they were called and did not respond by delegates, and which to crown its acts of infamy struck the word "National" from the Platform and the name of the party? Will she, with all these facts before her, conscious of the danger, like Brutus, strike a blow at her dearest friend, the Union? We cannot believe it. Pennsylvanians, pause and consider. Let reason resume her throne. Ask what is gained by the triumph of sectionalism, and what MAY BE LOST. We cannot doubt Pennsylvania in this emergency—New York and other States yet interpose between the Constitution and the Black Republican vandals. Independent of Pennsylvania, we yet have hope of their defeat. Then cheer up, Union men of the "Old Keystone," Rally your forces for November. Strike one more blow for the right. Gather once more around the standard of the Constitution, and confidently await the success you so justly deserve. But if borne down and defeated, we fall with the banner of the Constitution in our hands, and in the sunlight of truth. We cannot believe that defeat awaits so good a cause. We yet hope that he who "holds the destiny of nations in his hands" will give us the victory.

Over Confident!

That the Opposition were confident of electing their whole county ticket, on Tuesday week, is not as we no longer a matter of doubt. They were sure of it, and by from 200 to 400 majority at that. They had plenty of money—hundreds of dollars were spent by them in Menallen and York Springs alone—with no scarcity in any district—whilst the most extraordinary, secret as well as open, efforts, were made by the leaders, to force every man in their party into the work—to allow no one to stay at home, and no one to cut a ticket. With their money lavishly distributed, and their plans well laid, they were sanguine of success.

But they calculated upon false premises. Their money didn't go as far as they expected. And when glorious old Mount Pleasant, Conewago, Hamilton, and all the rest of the Democratic townships, came in, the rebels proved recreant, you have stood firm. While other districts darken beneath the cloud of the "irrepressible conflict," yours remains a green spot in the desert of abolitionised Pennsylvania. Shall we not go to work, then, and increase our majority at the coming election? We can do it. Our full vote was not polled at the recent election, and if brought out we can at least double Foster's majority. Let no Democrat be disengaged. We have future battles to fight. We have the Democratic organization to preserve. Rally, then, Rally like lions and frenzies, and give the enemy one more broadside in glorious little Adams, on the 6th of November next!

Democrats of all the districts, take fresh courage for the future. Considering the desperate struggle made against you, you maintained your position nobly. Do it again—do it always! As you should to shoulder to crush out insidious Know Nothingism, so now stand together in the battle which patriots wage against sectional Wide Awake Black Republicans. Our cause is STILL THE SAME!

—We say to every Democrat whom our voice can reach, let no apprehension of defeat deter you from coming out at the Presidential election and voting the Reading Electoral Ticket. Your vote is more important now, when the chances appear to us against our carrying the State, than if we had an easy victory before us. If our success was certain we might spare your vote, but under the circumstances that surround us we need it and must have it.

—Our neighbor of the Sentinel evinces only slight uneasiness in regard to the Wide Awake business. First, he commands the movement—because it is designed to assist Abolition Lincolnism. When taken to task by the Compiler for giving "aid and comfort" to this second edition of the Know Nothing Councils, he adopts a half-way course, and declares that though "the Wide Awakes are a band united to pull down the rotten fabric at Washington," he is not a member of "the club!" Although he sanctions the movement, he has some misgivings that it may after awhile become odious, as Know Nothingism did, and therefore he does not join "the club." Again the Compiler is "after him with a sharp stick," and reminds him of the fact that he pursued the very same course in regard to Know Nothingism—that whilst pretending not to be a Know Nothing, he had Know Nothing tickets at the head of the Sentinel, or any other newspaper. They may be induced to publish such parts as they cannot well conceal, but their secrets, of course will keep them to themselves. The Know Nothings would tell some things, but others they wouldn't! The Sentinel must adopt another "twist."

Congressional.

We are unable to give the exact result in this Congressional district, but it is certain that McPherson is re-elected by several hundred majority. In concert with the Democratic party, he and many prominent personal friends of Mr. Sizer, we heartily and sincerely regret his defeat. A good, able man who has been true to the best interests of the people. We much regret his defeat, but there are those who voted—and strove against him that will regret it more. Every dog has his day, and there are disgruntled wretches in Bedford county, that will find this stage set for the future. Sizer's majority, in this county, will be between 300 and 300. In Fulton his majority is 146; McPherson's in Franklin, 722, and in Adams 34—Bedford County,

McPherson's maj., 629

—Preparing for War.—The Governor of Arkansas, Elias N. Conway, has issued a proclamation to the militia of the State, directing them "to prepare for trouble and danger." Our defeat in Pennsylvania has had one good effect. It has given new energy to the conservative movement in New York. Should we carry New York, Lincoln may "hang his harp on the willows"—and all the indications are encouraging.

—A Warning Voice.—The Hon. Charles Jarvis, of Maine, long a member of Congress and a veteran in politics, and an octogenarian in years, in a letter to the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, expresses the liveliest apprehension over the warfare the North is preparing against the institutions of the South.

—The Republican papers of Ohio at length conclude the election of eight Democrats to the next Congress, which is a gain of two upon the old delegation.

—Five in One Day.—The Republicans have in one day re-elected five of the endorsers of Helper's Compendium of Treason, to wit: John Corvo and Charles A. Graw, in Pennsylvania; John Shadwell and John A. Bingham, in Ohio, and Adolphus Bedford, in Indiana.

—The statement that Mr. Yancey of Ala. was offered the nomination of Vice President, on the Douglas ticket, seems to be fully confirmed.

—Death of Judge Woodburn.—Hon. Samuel Woodburn, one of the Associate Judges of the Supreme Court, died at his residence in Dickenson township on Sunday morning, aged about 70 years. His death creates a vacancy on the bench, which will be filled by appointment by the Governor.

A Bass Fiddle.

According to the election returns in the First District, Philadelphia, when counted off and as filed in the Prothonotary's office, WILLIAM E. LEHMAN, Esq., the Democratic candidate, was elected by 148 votes. On the next day, when the Return Judge met, a return paper was handed in by the Return Judge, according to which J. M. BYRNE, the Republican candidate, was elected by 198 votes. It does not follow that because Curtin is elected that the Keystone of the Federal arch will, with absolute certainty, give her vote to a man whose election will in all probability number the days of the Republic. She has THREE WEEKS for deliberation. Can it be possible, that, occupying a central, conservative position, she will deliberately array herself on the Presidential question, with the fanatical, nullifying states of Vermont and Massachusetts? Will she forget all the teachings of the Fathers of the Republic? Will she disregard the councils of the greatest statesmen of the past and present against the danger of sectional parties, and give her vote to the candidates of a party which exists only in the Free States, and has grown up and now lives on sectional prejudice and ex-citement, which has nominated its candidates for President and Vice President, both from the Free States, which bissed the Southern States in their Convention at Chicago when they were called and did not respond by delegates, and which to crown its acts of infamy struck the word "National" from the Platform and the name of the party? Will she, with all these facts before her, conscious of the danger, like Brutus, strike a blow at her dearest friend, the Union? We cannot believe it. Pennsylvanians, pause and consider. Let reason resume her throne. Ask what is gained by the triumph of sectionalism, and what MAY BE LOST. We cannot doubt Pennsylvania in this emergency—New York and other States yet interpose between the Constitution and the Black Republican vandals. Independent of Pennsylvania, we yet have hope of their defeat. Then cheer up, Union men of the "Old Keystone," Rally your forces for November. Strike one more blow for the right. Gather once more around the standard of the Constitution, and confidently await the success you so justly deserve. But if borne down and defeated, we fall with the banner of the Constitution in our hands, and in the sunlight of truth. We cannot believe that defeat awaits so good a cause. We yet hope that he who "holds the destiny of nations in his hands" will give us the victory.

Wide Awake Solidification.

—AN GREAT, GRAND AND GLORIOUS FIELE! Painting posters, signed by the Chairman of the Opposition County Committee, D. A. BUCHANAN, Esq., and "acted" by the Secretary, D. McCONAUGHEY, Esq., were a week or more in, sent to all parts of the county, and even into the adjoining counties, announcing that a grand Wide Awake Solidification was to take place here on Friday night last. Any number of "clubs" were invited and expected to participate—all within the county, and several in Franklin and York counties.

—AN EARNEST CALL.—Our financial affairs have been, to some extent, neglected, for the past five or six weeks, and, as a consequence, obligations have accumulated on our hands among them a heavy paper bill. These debts we must now meet, and, to do so, a call upon our delinquent patrons is imperative. Will not those who owe, give us "a lift" without delay?—especially those whose accounts have been running for some years. If each indebted would pay but a part, we should soon feel ourselves comfortably "out of the woods." We cannot afford to keep up week after week, and year after year, paper, type, ink and labor, without an occasional "paying up" on the part of our patrons. We, therefore, indulge the hope that all indebted will come to reason, and "pay up" to the best of our power, for subscription, advertising and jobbing. Will see the propriety of immediately furnishing each with "material aid," and act accordingly.

To such as pay promptly, we renew our thanks—earnest, heart-felt thanks—and commend their example to all others for imitation.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Resolved, That this Committee, to hereby, send its action at Philadelphia on the 21st of October, and at Gettysburg on the 30th of August last, and that we recommend to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, to stand by the Electoral ticket made by the Democratic State Convention at Reading on the 1st of March, 1860.

Are You Assessed?

A number of persons lost their votes at the State Election because they had not been assessed in time. See to it that you do not lose your votes for the regular Democratic (Reading) Electoral Ticket, on the 6th of November, for the same reason; you have no time to lose.

Democrats of Adams County.

You have done your duty nobly. Against the most desperate odds, in spite of all the bribery and corruption, the trickery and chicanery, of your unscrupulous foes, you have saved Adams County once more from falling into the hands of the Abolitionists. Though the result of the election is not in every respect as we hoped it might be, yet you have much to rejoice over. While other counties proved recreant, you have stood firm. While other districts darken beneath the cloud of the "irrepressible conflict," yours remains a green spot in the desert of abolitionized Pennsylvania. Shall we not go to work, then, and increase our majority at the coming election? We can do it. Our full vote was not polled at the recent election, and if brought out we can at least double Foster's majority. Let no Democrat be disengaged. We have future battles to fight. We have the Democratic organization to preserve. Rally, then! Rally, once more, fellow Democrats! Rally like men and freemen, and give the enemy one more broadside in glorious little Adams, on the 6th of November next!

We say to every Democrat whom our voice can reach, let no apprehension of defeat deter you from coming out at the Presidential election and voting the Reading Electoral Ticket. Your vote is more important now, when the chances appear to be against our carrying the State, than if we had an easy victory before us. If our success was certain we might spare your vote, but under the circumstances that surround us we need it and must have it.

To our friends in the country, who, under the depressing influence of our late defeat in the State, may feel inclined to stay at home on election day, we would make an earnest appeal to give one more day to their country. We may be victorious after all. All is not lost that's in danger! Rally once more!

Expected Results of Black Republican Success.—A negro insurrection—perhaps more than one—is very likely to follow the knowledge of a Republican triumph!—Tribune of Saturday week.

Pause, voter, and reflect. Can you, with patriotic blood in your veins, vote with a party whose triumph would precipitate insurrection—dissolution—ruin! The ship of state is being driven by Northern fanaticism towards an awful brink—will you by your vote, assist the shipwreck upon our beloved country? Voter, PAUSE!

The Wide Awakes!—All honor to these glorious bands of young men!—Star.

That's just the way the Star puffed the Know Nothing in their day of glory.

The order, however, became odious to a majority of the people, and the Star ceased its praises—some of the managers even going so far as to denounce the midnight concern! So it will be with their Wide Awake movement. It will soon go down, too—and then the Star will give it as many kicks as if now gives it puffs. Mark the prediction.

"Since the recent elections the South is becoming more reconciled!"—Star.

Could a falsehood more deliberate be perpetrated. With its city exchanges tecum every day with articles announcing the terrible anxiety at the South because of the progress of Northern fanaticism, the Star has the effrontery to make the above declaration. Are the Republicans already becoming alarmed at the result of their work?

A prominent citizen of Philadelphia recently saw the sum of $73,000 counted down to the Chairman of the Black Republican State Committee for this State, to be used to effect the election of Andrew G. Curtin. This amounts to the defeat of Henry D. Foster.

Bedford Gazette.

Pennsylvania Democrats! Let it not be said that you are conquered. Rouse yourselves for another struggle with the enemy. Vote! Vote!

The Harrisburg Patriot & Union says that the Wide Awake club there is likely to be turned into a military company. What are we coming to? Is it any wonder that the sectionalists of the North are not only organizing, but arming?

Courage, Friends of the Union!

The York Gazette, of Tuesday, says:—It is true the friends of the Union were defeated on Tuesday last, and that the proud banner of Democracy was stricken down in Pennsylvania. But Lincoln is not yet elected. Pennsylvania has not yet endorsed his election. It does not follow that Curtin is elected that the "Keystone of the Federal arch" will, with absolute certainty, give her vote to a man whose election will in all probability number the days of the Republic. She has THREE WEEKS for deliberation. Can it be possible, that, occupying a central, conservative position, she will deliberately array herself on the Presidential question, with the fanatical, nullifying states of Vermont and Massachusetts? Will she forget all the teachings of the Fathers of the Republic? Will she disregard the councils of the greatest statesmen of the past and present against the danger of sectional parties, and give her vote to the candidates of a party which exists only in the Free States, and has grown up and now lives on sectional prejudice and excitement, which has nominated its candidates for President and Vice President, both from the Free States, which hissed the Southern States in their Convention at Chicago when they were called and did not respond by delegates, and which to crown its acts of infamy struck the word "National" from the Platform and the name of the party? Will she, with all these facts before her, conciliate of the danger, like Bunting, strike a blow at her dearest friend, the Union? We cannot believe it. Pennsylvanians, pause and consider. Let reason rescue her throne. As what is gained by the triumph of sectionalism and compromise, which were only offered to be refused by a few noisy and disorganized spirits principally at Harrisburg and Philadelphia, who appeared determined to rule or ruin the party. The question is now a simple one. Strip off all compromises and contingencies, the Democracy of the State is called upon to vote the Reading Electoral Ticket just as the State Conventions left it. Those who do not vote it are, of course, against regular nomination.—Leicester Intelligencer.

A Base Fraud.

According to the election returns in the First District, Philadelphia, when counted off and an affidavit in the Prothonotary's office, WILLIAM E. LEHMAN, Esq., the Democratic candidate, was elected by 148 votes. On the next day, when the Return Judges met, a return paper was handed in by the Return Judge, according to which J. M. BUTLER, the Republican candidate, was elected by 198 majority. There can be no doubt but that this return was a base forgery. The Return Judge stated that the return paper had been in the possession of his wife during the night, and he knew of no person having had it. He was arrested for forgery, and has been bound over for trial. This is the boldest attempt at fraud that we have ever read of. It is supposed some person must somehow have substituted the forged return for the genuine one. The matter is undergoing investigation, and Gov. PACER will probably not declare BUTLER elected.—Leicester Register.

The Democratic State Executive Committee.

The Democratic State Executive Committee, which met at Reading on Friday last, received the action of the 21 of July, at Philadelphia, and of the 9th of August, at Cresson, and determined to stand by the Reading Electoral Ticket, pure and intact, without any conditions or qualifications. This was the very best thing the Committee could do, and every true Democrat should feel in duty bound to support the ticket. The Committee, at their former meeting, in their anxiety to keep the party together and secure the election of Gen. Foster, offered concessions and compromises, which were only offered to be refused by a few noisy and disorganized spirits principally at Harrisburg and Philadelphia, who appeared determined to rule or ruin the party. The question is now a simple one. Strip off all compromises and contingencies, the Democracy of the State is called upon to vote the Reading Electoral Ticket just as the State Conventions left it. Those who do not vote it are, of course, against regular nomination.—Leicester Intelligencer.

Withdrawn.

The Douglas State Committee met at Philadelphia on Thursday evening last, and by a vote of 16 to 4, withdrew their straight-out Ticket. This leaves but one Democratic Electoral Ticket in the field—that made by the regular State Convention at Reading.—Now, Democrats, for a united pull—"a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether" for the one and only cause! The State may still be saved. Let us all make the effort! AROUSE! AROUSE!

Over Confident! That the Opposition were confident of electing their whole county ticket, on Tuesday week, is with us no longer a matter of doubt. They were sure of it, and by from 200 to 400 majority at that. They had plenty of money—hundreds of dollars were spent by them in Monaghan and York Springs alone—with no security in any district,—whilst the most extraordinary, secret as well as open, efforts were made by the leaders, to force every man in their party into the work—to allow no one to stay at home, and no one to cut a ticket. With their money lavishly distributed, and their plans well laid, they were sanguine of success.

But they calculated upon false premises. Their money didn't go as far as they expected. And when glorious old Mount Pleasant, Conowingo, Hamilton, and all the rest of the Democratic townships, came in, the rebels fell like a death-blow upon the Opposition leaders, and they felt, if never they felt before, how unpurchasable are the Democracy one more broadside in glorious little Adams, on the 6th of November next!

The Good Time Coming. Mr. C. H. Langston, a nigger Republican of some ability—addressed the colored people at their First of August celebration in Dayton. We find a sketch of his remarks in the Dayton Empire. Langston said: "God has brought the colored folks here for a great purpose. It was the destiny of the white and black races on this continent to amalgamate, and out of the union will grow the most mighty and perfect people the world ever knew. We can't escape this destiny.—The blacks would furnish to the country stock and bone and sinew and muscle, and the whites the intellectual stock. And together, the amalgam would present a perfect nation."

The audience was a mixed one—white and black—and it was curious to notice the diverse effects produced by the prophetic eloquence of the speaker. The negroes, by expressive looks, indicated willingness to enter immediately into the prop-sec arrangement for the supply of bone and sinew—they were of course ready to "go in on their master's" instant. But respectable looking old gentlemen, fathers of fair daughters, from whom was expected the requisite supply of "intellectual stock," grew hasty, reached for their hats and canes and departed.

Traps for the Young. The old Know Nothing council were so many traps to inveigle the young. So are the Wide Awake clubs. The former admitted persons of 12 years of age—minors; so do the latter. The more made up of the new Know Nothing organization, the more closely do we find it to resemble the old, in all its aims and objects.

Treachery Acknowledged. Since the election, Forney's Press extols over the defeat of Foster, and acknowledges its agency in accomplishing that result. In an article deplored the fraud by which Mr. Lehman was cheated out of the return from the First Congressional District, the Press says:—

First ANNIVERSARY OF THE CAPTURE OF HARPER'S FERRY.—The friends of impartial liberty in Watertown are requested to meet in the public square, on TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 17, to go in Torch Light Procession to Boston, and take part in the Grand Demonstration commemorative of the SURRENDER OF HARPER'S FERRY to Capt. JOHN BROWN.

"Let every man be on hand early. The occasion will keep you WIDE AWAKE."

Negro Equality.—We are informed by reliable persons that the vote of Mr. Edward Maginn, a respectable citizen of Allegheny, residing in the Fourth ward, was challenged at the polls when he offered to deposit it, by a colored man, and Mr. M., being a foreigner, was obliged to show his naturalization papers before he was permitted to vote. This is carrying the Republican doctrine of negro equality into practice in a manner which must disgust all sensible white men, of whatever party.—Pittsburgh Post.

Preparing for War.—The Governor of Arkansas, Elias N. Conway, has issued a proclamation to the militia of the State, directing them "to prepare for trouble and danger."

Our defeat in Pennsylvania has had one good effect. It has given new energy to the conservative movement in New York. Should we carry New York, Lincoln may "hang his harp on the willows"—and all the indications are encouraging.

Congressional. We are unable to give the exact result in this Congressional district, but it is certain that McPherson is re-elected by several hundred majority. In the 17th district, the Democrats of Bedford county and the majority of the friends of Mr. Schell, he heartily and sincerely regret his defeat. A good, able man, who has been true to the best interests of the people. We much regret his defeat, but those are those who voted and strove against him that will regret it more. Every dog has his day, and there are ungrateful wretches in Bedford county, that will find this avenge verified in the future. Schell's majority in this county is 140; McPherson's in Franklin, 722, and in Adams 84.—Bedford Gazette.

In one day re-elected five of the endorsers of Hopper's Compendium of Treason, to wit: John C. Coode and Galusha A. Grow, in Pennsylvania; John Sherman and John A. Bingham, in Ohio, and Schuyler Colfax, in Indiana.

Wide Awake Jollification.

FOR A GREAT, GRAND AND GLORIOUS FIZZLE!

Flaming posters, signed by the Chairman of the Opposition County Committee, D. A. BUCHLER, Esq., and "attested" by the Secretary, D. MCNAUL, Esq., were a work or more like, sent to all parts of the county, and even into the adjoining counties, announcing that a grand Wide Awake Jollification was to take place here on Friday night last. Any number of "clubs" were invited and expected to participate—all within the county, and several in Franklin and York counties. The most extravagant promises were held out—an immense demonstration was to be had—those who over, give us "a lit" without delay?—especially those whose accounts have been running for some years. If each indebted would pay but a part, we should soon feel ourselves comfortably "out of the woods." We cannot afford to keep up, week after week, and year after year, paper, type, ink and labor, without an occasional "paying up" on the part of our patrons. We, therefore, indulge the hope that all indebted for subscription, advertising and jobbing will see the propriety of immediately furnishing us with "material aid," and act accordingly. To such as pay promptly, we renew our thanks—earliest, heartiest thanks—and commend their example to all others for imitation.

COMMISSIONED.—SAMUEL WOLF, Esq., has been commissioned, by the Governor, as Sheriff of Adams county, and will take up his residence at the Jail and enter upon his office to-morrow. That he will perform the important duties of the post with promptness and fidelity, all who know Mr. Wolf will readily concede. The same qualities characterized the Sheriff under the present incumbent, ISAAC LIGHTNER, Esq., for which he deserves praise.

SALE OF PROPERTY.—M. D. K. SNYDER, as Administrator of the estate of Conrad Snyder, deceased, has sold the following property:—

Homestead of said deceased, adjoining Gettysburg, containing 40 acres, with improvements, to James Pierce, for $84 per acre.

Sixty six acres of land, on the Emmitsburg road, without improvements, to Mr. NICOLAS COOPER, for $15 per acre.

Sixteen acres, adjoining the above, without improvements, to the widow of C. Snyder, for $25 per acre.

House and Lot in Gettysburg, to the same, for $50.

Eleven acres woodland on the Emmitsburg road, to Philip Reino, for $25 per acre.

Thirty acres mountain land to ABRAHAM SHELLEY, for $5.30 per acre—all cash sales.

LESTRICTIVE FIRE.—On Wednesday last, the new and tasteful barn of Dr. PEPPER, in Oxford, was entirely consumed by fire, causing a loss of $1000. The FIZZLE was most complete!

After "smoking" it through several on the street, exciting only ridicule by their performances, the Wide Awakes halted in front of Tate's hotel, where D. McConaughy, Esq., and Republians, at their former meeting, in the field—that made by the regular State Convention at Reading, had all the time—

Resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee.

Resolved, That this Committee do hereby rescind its action at Philadelphia on the 2d of July, and at Cresson on the 9th of August last, and that we recommend to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to stand by the Electoral ticket made by the Democratic State Convention at Reading on the 1st of March, 1860.

Are You Assessed?

A number of persons lost their votes at the State Election because they had not been Assembled in time. See to it that you do not lose your votes for the regular Democratic (Reading)

Electoral Ticket, on the 6th of November, for the same reason; you have no time to lose.

Democrats of Adams County.

You have done your duty nobly. Against the most desperate odds, in spite of all the bribery and corruption, the trickery and chicanery, of your unscrupulous foes, you have saved Adams county once more from falling into the hands of the Abolitionists. Though the result of the election is not in every respect as we hoped it might be, yet you have much to rejoice over. While other counties proved recreant, you have stood firm. While other districts darken beneath the cloud of the "irrepressible conflict," yours remains a green spot in the desert of abolitionized Pennsylvania. Shall we not go to work, then, and increase our majority at the coming election? We can do it. Our full vote was not polled at the recent election, and if brought out we can at least double Foster's majority.

Let no Democrat be disengaged. We have future battles to fight. We have the Democratic organization to preserve. Rally, then!

Rally, once more, fellow Democrats! Rally like men and freemen, and give the enemy

one more broadside in glorious little Adams, on the 6th of November next!

Over Confident!

That the Opposition were confident of electing their whole county ticket, on Tuesday week, is with us no longer a matter of doubt.

They were sure of it, and by from 200 to 400

majority at that. They had plenty of money

—hundreds of dollars were spent by them in Menallen and York Springs alone—with no scruple in any district,—whilst the most extraordinary, secret as well as open, efforts, were made by the leaders, to force every man in their party into the work to allow a to stay at home, and no one to eat a ticket.

With their money lavishly distributed, and their plans well laid, they were sanguine of success.

But they calculated upon false premises.

Their money didn't go as far as they expected. And when glorious old Mount Pleasant,

Conowing, Hamilton, and all the rest of the Democratic townships came in, the rebuke fell like a death-blow upon the Opposition leaders, and they felt, if never they felt before, how unparsable the Democracy of steering little Adams.

Democrats of all the districts, take fresh courage for the future. Considering the desperate struggle made against you, you maintained your position nobly.

Do it again—do it always! As you stand to shoulder to shoulder to crush out initiative! Know Nothingism, so now stand together in the battle which patriotism wages against sectional Wide Awake Black Republi-cianism. Our cause is still the same!

We say to every Democrat whom our voice can reach, let no apprehension of defeat deter you from coming out at the Presidential election and voting the Reading Electoral Ticket. Your vote is more important now, when the chances appear to be against our carrying the State, than if we had an easy victory before us. If our success was certain we might spare your vote, but under the circumstances that surround us we need it and must have it.

To our friends in the country, who,

under the depressing influence of our late defeat in the State, may feel inclined to stay at home on election day, we would make an earnest appeal to give one more day to their country. We may be victorious after all!

All is not lost that's in danger! Rally once more!

Expected Results of Black Republican Suc-

The order, however, became odious to a majority of the people, and the Star ceased its praises—some of the managers even going so far as to denounce the midnight concern! So it will be with their Wide Awake Black Republi-cianism towards an awful brink—will you, by your vote, assist to dash her over and bring all the horrors of shipwreck upon our beloved country? Voter, PAUSE!

"The Harrisburg Patriot & Union says that the Wide Awake club there is likely to be turned into a military company. What are we turning to? Is it any wonder that the sectionalists of the North are not yet organized, but ARREST?

A prominent citizen of Philadelphia recently saw the sum of $73,000 counted down to the Chairman of the Black Republican State

Committee for this State, to be used to effect the election of Andrew G. Curtin. This constitutes a base fraud.
